

LOVE SONG

Shattered Skies

I'll never write you a love song
You never shared your love with me
I'll never give you my love song
(No, I'm never...never gonna give you my love song)
You don't know the meaning of the word called love.

I'll never sing you my love song,
Cause you never gave your love to me.

I'm forced to close my eyes
Let go, pretend I feel no pain
I'll never sing you my love song,
Cause you never gave your love to me.

I'll never wish you my love song
You never dreamt of loving me
I'll never dream you my love song
No, I'm never...never gonna dream you my love song
You never fantasized of me, oh no!

I'll never sing you my love song,
Cause you never gave your love to me.

I'm forced to close my eyes
Let go, pretend I feel no pain
I'll never sing you my love song,
Cause you don't love me like I love you.

Don't think of me as blind
(Don't think...)
I see all the things you do
(Don't think...)
And there will come a time
When I'll let go of loving you.

I'll never sing you my love song,
Cause you never gave your love to me.

I'll never sing you my love song,
Cause you never gave your love to me...

I'll never sing you my love song,
Cause you never gave your love to me...
