MISS TEEN Shattered Skies

You can keep telling yourself that beauty's skin deep
Deep inside you know that's not the reality
Even the predators who hide amongst us know
Deep in their hearts that not the reality
Be confident, in yourself
Don't let someone else tell you who you are
If you're acceptable, no...no...no!

Miss Teen, Miss Teen

You can keep comparing yourself to someone you're not
Deep inside you know it makes you angry..yeah
You can keep wallowing in your misery
Deep inside you know that's the reality
Be confident, in yourself
Don't let someone else tell you who you are
If you're acceptable, no...no...no!

Picture perfect outside, crumbling on the inside
Deep in your heart you know it makes you angry
Be confident, in yourself
Don't let someone else tell you who you are
Who you're supposed to be
If you're acceptable, no...no...no!
