RESCUE ME Shattered Skies

Can't you see I'm running?
Running just to stand real still!
Don't you see I'm running?
Battling to get up that hill!
Can't you see I'm running? (Oh,oh..)
Drowning in a pool that's real!

I need some gills just to stay afloat...
I'm sinking and I need a boat!

I need to slow down
To catch my breath
I need to know now
What's coming next?

I need somebody to rescue me...
I need somebody to rescue me!

Can't you see I'm running?
Longing just to be real free!
Don't you see I'm running?
Battling to get through this dream!
Can't you see I'm running?
Drowning in the deep blue sea!

I need some gills just to stay afloat
I'm sinking and I need a boat...

I need to slow down
To catch my breath
I need to know now
What's coming next?

I need somebody to hear my plea
I need somebody just to set me free

I need to slow down
To catch my breath
I need to know now
What's coming next?

I need somebody to rescue me...
I need somebody to hear my plea!
I need somebody to set me free
Somebody, somebody, somebody
I need somebody
I need someone, someone!
