

RUNNING TO ME
Shattered Skies

I hate the sound of the pouring rain
Cause it reminds me of you...
I can't let go of your pain!
I can't let go of your pain..Darlin..

You chose another love over me
You said you wanted to be free
You made your bed now lie in it
You made your bed now lie in it Darlin!

You made the decision to leave
Live with the choice that you made...
You left on your own
Even though I gave you all that I had

Why are you running to me?
Why are you running to me Darlin?
Why are you running to me?
Why are you running to me?

You should have thought about life after me
How could you be so blind not to see?
I can't let go of your pain
I can't let go of your pain Darlin

You gave your love to someone other than me
I gave my heart to you for free
You made your bed now lie in it
You made your bed now lie in it Darlin!

You made the decision to leave
Live with the choice that you made...
You left on your own
Even though I gave you all that I had

Why are you running to me?
Why are you running to me Darlin?
Why are you running to me?
Why are you running to me?

You made the decision to leave
Live with the choice that you made...
You left on your own
Even though I gave you all that I had

Why are you running to me?
Why are you running to me Darlin?
Why are you running to me?
Why are you running to me?
