

TORTURE
Shattered Skies

Daily the world keeps spinning while I'm breathing
And...living a life that is torture (...torture)
Struggling...I'm watching time just pass me by
While I'm racing the sun, before I grow old...

I'm living my life...and I'm living in torture (...torture)
I'm living my life...and I'm living in torture...

Raising my voice up to the man we call God
Wondering what I have done to deserve this strife? (...torture)
Angered, but sobered up on my drunken life
Twelve stepping back to find my better days...

I'm living my life, and I'm living in torture....
I'm living my life, and I'm living in torture....
I fear reality is just deceiving me...oh, oh...
I'm living my life, but I'm living in torture!

I'm standing still. Oh yeah, I'm standing still...
Standing still...so much I'm tortured...
I'm standing still. Oh yeah, I'm standing still...
Standing still, so much it's torture...

Struggling...I'm watching time just pass me by
While I'm racing the sun, before I grow old...
Angered, but sobered up by my drunken life
Twelve stepping back to find my better days...

I'm living my life, and I'm living in torture....
I'm living my life, and I'm living in torture....
I fear reality is just deceiving me...oh, oh...
I'm living my life, but I'm living in torture!
