WANTED Shattered Skies

I fear falling in love,
For a long list of reasons why.
I've walked on shaky ground
Leapt before looking and drowned.

You're fighting for my love.
Neglecting my emotions!
Try to understand why I'm pushing you away....

You labeled my heart wanted...
What am I to do?
You labeled my heart wanted...
When I'm afraid to give my heart away to you.

I've been in and out of the storm,
Through so many lovers' arms.
What would be my reward,
If I gave my heart to you?

You're fighting for my love.
Neglecting my emotions!
Try to understand why I'm pushing you away...

You labeled my heart wanted...
What am I to do?
You labeled my heart wanted...
When I'm afraid to give my heart away to you.

So many broken promises! (promises)
Many broken dreams!
My heart has swelled up!
Swelled up and flowed like the streams
My heart is in pain
I want you to refrain from me!

You labeled my heart wanted...
What am I to do?
You labeled my heart wanted...
When I'm afraid to give my heart away to you.
