

WHERE I NEED TO BE
Shattered Skies

There was a long road ahead
Right in front of me
I struggled, I toiled
Towards my destiny (Whatever it may be?)
There's a vision in my head
Of what's to come for me
With every step that I take
It brings me closer and closer to
Where I need to be!

Closer and closer...
Close to where I want to be
Closer and closer...
Close to where I need to be
Closer and closer
Towards my destiny!

There's a stage up ahead
Where I am to stand
I'll struggle, I'll toil
Towards my destiny
In a dream along the way (yeah)
I found a wish true to me
With every step that I take (yeah)
It brings me closer and closer to
Where I need to be!

Closer and closer...
Close to where I want to be
Closer and closer...
Close to where I need to be
Closer and closer
Towards my destiny!

No matter how much I fall
No matter how much I stall
I have to rise above it all
Just to get closer and closer to
Where I need to be!
Just to get closer and closer to
Where I need to be!
